

Resources & Business Management Strategy

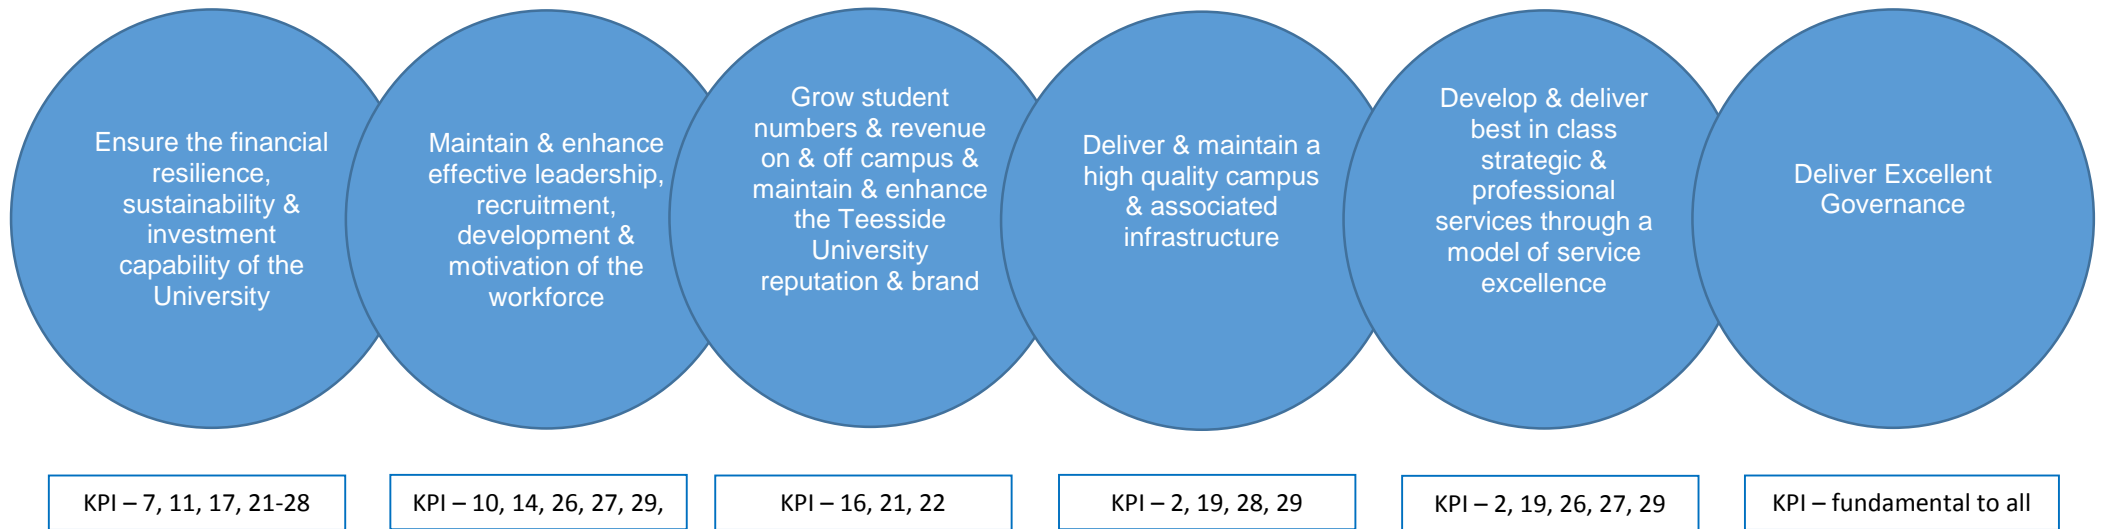

What are we here to do?

The Resources and Business Management Strategy and underpinning Professional Services keep the University safe and sustainable, secure investment and growth and support academic excellence and the student and graduate experience

Where do we want to get to by 2020?

The University approach to Resources and Business Management and underpinning Professional Services are best in class, fully supporting the student experience and driving University management, change and commercial activities through a model of Service Excellence
