

STUDENT COMPLAINTS POLICY AND PROCEDURE

GUIDE FOR STUDENTS YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED

This document is a walk-through process to assist you in understanding the University's Student Complaints Policy & Procedure ('the Procedure'). You are strongly encouraged to read this guide, together with the Procedure, prior to completing your Student Complaint Form.

A copy of the Procedure can be located at www.tees.ac.uk/studentregulations, and further information on submitting your Student Complaint Form to the Student Casework Office (previously known as the Office of Student Complaints, Appeals and Regulations (OSCAR)) can be found in this guide.

1. What is a Complaint?

The University broadly defines a complaint as “an expression of dissatisfaction by one or more students about something a provider has done or not done, or about the standard of service provided by or on behalf of the provider”.

There is a flowchart at the back of the guide to assist you with this process.

Please note that if you are directly enrolled with the University studying a programme delivered by a Partner Institution you should, in the first instance, use the Partner Institution's Complaints Procedure. If the Complaint is not resolved under the Partner Institution's Complaints Procedure to your satisfaction, you may refer your complaint to the Student Casework Office, under Stage 2 of the Procedure.

If you are directly enrolled with a Partner Institution and studying a course for which the University is the awarding body, the use of this Procedure is limited to issues which the University has direct control over, for example, academic standards, course delivery, teaching, feedback, and learning resources. In these circumstances, only where you have exhausted the Partner Institution's Complaints Procedure, may you refer your Complaint to the Student Casework Office, under Stage 2 of the Procedure.

If your Complaint relates to a service related issue which is under the control of the Partner Institution, for example, issues with the facilities, the Partner Institution, if they are a member of the OIA, will deal with all aspects of your Complaint and, on conclusion of its internal complaints process, will issue you with a 'Completion of Procedures' letter. In cases where the Partner Institution is not a member of the OIA the conclusion of Partner Institution's Complaints Procedure concludes your case.

If you are an Apprentice, enrolled on an Apprenticeship with the University, you may also ask the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA) to consider your complaint.

2. Where can I get advice?

The Student Casework Office can assist you with the process:

E: sco@tees.ac.uk

The Students' Union can provide you with free, independent advice and guidance on your individual circumstances. If you are enrolled on a course which is validated by Teesside University and delivered by a Partner Institution, please contact your own Students' Union or equivalent.

E: suss@tees-su.org.uk

For additional support you can contact the University's Student and Library Services who offer a wide range of services, including welfare advice, counselling and disability services:

E: studentlife@tees.ac.uk

3. What can I complain about?

Examples include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The quality and standards of service provided by the University, its staff or a third party acting on behalf of the University (subject to paragraph 5.2.4 below);
- Failure by the University or its staff to provide a service, or other lack of action by the University or its staff (subject to paragraph 5.2.4 below);
- Misleading or incorrect information in promotional material and other information provided by the University;
- Concerns about the delivery of a course, teaching or administration including, where applicable, those delivered by a Partner Institution;
- The quality of facilities, services or learning resources;
- Events causing significant disruption to the normal delivery of a course, service or aspect of the student experience, such as industrial action, or a public health emergency;

- Complaints about a service delivered by another organisation or contractor on behalf of the University that has affected the student's learning experience;

4. What can the procedure not be used for?

Examples include, but are not limited to, the following:

- A concern or comment, which is informal and the University believes does not require any further action;
- A concern about a decision made by an Assessment Board regarding an assessment decision, progression or award, which would normally be considered under the University's Academic Appeal Regulations;
- A concern raised by a student against another student. Such matters should first be brought to the attention of the University under the University's Student Disciplinary Regulations. However, a reporting student may submit a complaint under this process if they have concerns regarding the fairness followed, or new evidence that could make a difference to the outcome which the student could not have reasonably provided earlier;
- A concern about a decision made under another process, for example (but not limited to) the:
Fitness to Practise Regulations;
Fitness to Study Policy and Procedure.
Extenuating Circumstances Regulations (Taught Provision) or Extenuating Circumstances Regulations (Research Degree Programmes).
Student Disciplinary Regulations.
Student Attendance and Engagement Policy and Procedure.

- A request under the UK General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018;
- A request for information on University policy, procedure or regulation;
- A response to an invitation to provide feedback or when feedback is given through the general web;

- Forms or surveys seeking feedback;
- An insurance claim;
- An attempt to have a complaint reconsidered when the matter complained of has already exhausted the University's procedures and a 'Completion of Procedures' letter has been issued;
- A grievance by a student who is also a member of staff; such cases are to be handled through the appropriate Human Resources procedures;
- Complaints relating to the Student Loans Company, which has its own Complaints Procedures.
- A complaint relating to a service issue which by its nature is not in the control of the University.
- Complaints relating to Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checks.
- Complaints made by applicants regarding admission decisions which are dealt with under the University's Admissions Policy Appeals Process.

5. What if I am unsure whether my issue(s) fall under the Procedure?

You should contact an Adviser from the Students' Union who will be able to assist you.

6. What are the timescales for submitting a Complaint?

In order to ensure that your Complaint is dealt with quickly, the University expects that you initially attempt to resolve it by early resolution as soon as possible after the event. However, a formal complaint must be raised 30 days after the matters complained about have occurred, or within 30 days from the date of the most recent event.

If your Complaint cannot be resolved by early resolution then you should submit a formal Complaint (Stage 1 - Formal Resolution Stage). You should complete and submit a Stage 1 Student Complaint Form, available from the Student Casework Office or www.tees.ac.uk/studentregulations, and submit this to the Student Casework Office.

If you still remain dissatisfied with the outcome of your Stage 1 Complaint, you have the opportunity to submit a Stage 2 (Review Stage) Complaint. A Stage 2 Student Complaint Form is available from the Student Casework Office or www.tees.ac.uk/studentregulations, and must be submitted to the Student Casework Office within 7 days of the written outcome of Stage 1.

The Procedure is also available to former students of the University who submit a written Complaint no longer than 30 days from the notification of awards related to their relevant course of study. In cases where public notification of awards is not given, a formal complaint (Stage 1) may be made no later than 30 days of the Record of Progress being issued to the student, or within 30 days of the termination of a student's contract (for example, a withdrawal date) whichever is the latter.

If a late Complaint is submitted, you must include a separate written statement for the late submission, supported by evidence (if applicable) which will be considered by the University's nominee. If the decision is not to accept a late complaint, the student's complaint will be closed, and the student may request a 'Completion of Procedures' letter from the Student Casework Office within 28 days from the issue date of the University's nominee's decision.

7. Can I make an anonymous Complaint?

A Complaint will not normally be dealt with by the University if submitted anonymously. However, the University may need to take action if evidence is presented that a risk to the public exists.

8. What if I would like somebody else to act on my behalf?

It is not permissible for the University to communicate with external third parties regarding your Complaint without your written consent. This includes a representative from your Students' Union, legal representative, parent, guardian or spouse. Therefore, if you wish the University to be able to discuss your case with a third party, you will need to confirm this on your Student Complaint Form.

9. Can I bring a friend to meetings?

Where a meeting has been arranged with you to discuss your Complaint you may bring one friend. A friend for the purpose of this process is a person who, at your request, may come with you and speak on your behalf. This person may be a representative from the Students' Union, and cannot be a person who act as a representative or attends in any legal capacity. Please notify the Student Casework Office if you intend to bring a friend with you to a meeting.

10. Will my Complaint remain confidential?

Your Complaint will be handled with discretion and access will only be provided to those who have a legitimate reason to access the information for the purposes of investigating your Complaint. With your agreement, a copy of your Complaint will be circulated to the relevant individual(s) who may be the subject of the Complaint. To assist in the investigation of your Complaint the University may need to gather information held by its staff or third parties. Please note that if you do not provide agreement to your Complaint being disclosed, it may not be possible for the University to undertake a full investigation or resolve your issues.

11. What information must I include?

It is also important that you include with your Student Complaint Form any relevant documentation to support your case and list the documentation you are including on your Student Complaint Form.

You are strongly advised to keep a copy of your Student Complaint Form and any supporting documentation. Documents supplied as part of your Complaint will not normally be returned. Where photocopies of documents are submitted, you may be required to provide the Student Casework Office with sight of the original documents in order to verify their authenticity. If evidence is provided in a language other than English, it is your responsibility to have it independently translated.

12. How do I complete the Student Complaint Form?

Before completing your Application Form we recommend that you seek advice from an Adviser in your Students' Union. A copy of the Application Form can be located at www.tees.ac.uk/studentregulations. Due to current working practices, your completed application form should be submitted to the Student Casework Office via email.

The Student Complaint Form is divided into sections and it is important that you complete all relevant sections, as any omissions may result in a delay with your Complaint being processed.

The sections identified below must be completed:

Sections 2 & 3: The nature of your Complaint

Section 4: Outcome sought

Section 5: The involvement of an Adviser

If you plan to submit third party data without the consent of the individual, please ensure that it is anonymised (for example, names and any other personal data is redacted). Anonymising personal data may detract from the use or purpose of the information provided and consent is therefore preferable to ensure that the matter is properly considered. The University may refuse to accept documents, which include third party data without consent and which have not been anonymised and you may be asked to resubmit such evidence once consent is obtained or anonymisation has taken place. Where non-anonymised third party personal data has been accepted in error, the University reserves the right to redact the personal data. Processing of personal data in this way will be under the lawful basis of legitimate interest and in the public interest.

Disability or Specific Learning Disability:

Please ensure that you have identified on your Student Complaint Form whether you have a disability or specific learning difficulty and require any adjustments in order that the University can provide you with appropriate support to access this process. The OIA operates an independent student complaints scheme. It will only consider cases that have completed the University's internal procedures.
