Travelling to Middlesbrough

From Durham-Tees Valley Airport:

The easiest and quickest way would be to take a taxi from the airport to your accommodation. Taxis can be booked from the airport, and this will cost £30 and takes 15/20 minutes.

From Newcastle Airport:

A taxi from Newcastle Airport to Middlesbrough would cost £80-£100.

To travel by train you should get a Metro train from the airport to Newcastle Central Station. This costs around £3. There are direct trains from Newcastle Central to Middlesbrough about once an hour. This journey can take around 1 ½ hours. An alternative route, which can be quicker, is to take a train to Darlington (these are quite regular) and a train to Middlesbrough from Darlington. Single train fares from Newcastle to Middlesbrough cost around £10 - £15 and trains run from approximately 6:00 to 22:00 (www.nationalrail.co.uk or 08457 48 49 50). You would then have to get a taxi to your accommodation.

If you arrive late at night:

You might want to stay in a hotel and travel the next day.
